

Not specifically but it has been 30 days since issuance of the FEIS so the Corps is free to issue a ROD anytime it wants. so there is that timing element to consider. It is my understanding that Pebble will submit a revised compensatory mitigation plan next week and then the Corps will have everything it needs to make a decision.